

Transformative Ways to Engage Students with Active Learning Methods Evaluation Survey

March 13, 2025

The "Transformative Ways to Engage Students with Active Learning Methods" seminar, part of the Faculty Development Program, aimed to equip instructors with strategies to enhance student engagement through active learning methods. An evaluation survey was conducted to assess the seminar's effectiveness in terms of content, delivery, and overall impact. A total of 15 faculty members were invited to participate, with 2 respondents providing feedback on their experiences.

Table 1 showed that the majority of participants rated various aspects of the Transformative Ways to Engage Students with Active Learning Methods seminar positively. Overall satisfaction was moderate, with 50% of respondents rating it as "Excellent" or "Very Good". Content relevance received similarly mixed feedback, with 50% rating it "Excellent" and 50% "Fair". While speaker expertise was rated favorably, interaction and discussion received more critical feedback.
